

CAMP “CAN DO”

by Cathy Klein
Former Program Coordinator

Miami Children's Hospital
The Mary Ann Knight International Institute of Pediatrics
Miami, FL

Special Section
VENT CAMPS
for KIDS

Photo: Michael Carlebach,
“Pool play”

Parents of children who require oxygen, trachs and vents for chronic conditions are super busy people who don't have a lot of dollars to spare. They are constantly aware of their child's condition and must be readily able to access doctors, DME providers, home nurses, and medical supplies. A family vacation is a challenge for most families to arrange, but for these pioneer families, it is far beyond imagination. Or is it?